3 Reasons Why you Should Stay at a Golf Resort on your Next Vacation

By Manan Vyas

For most vacations involving family or friends, zeroing in on a place of stay can be one of the toughest decisions to arrive at. The elderly usually want to sit back and relax at a resort or a hotel, and the younger ones want to be more adventurous, with activities beyond the traditional swimming pool and gymnasium. While the search usually ends at these options, it is time that you consider staying at a golf resort on your next vacation, irrespective of whether you play the game or not. Read on to find out why staying at a golf resort might turn out to be a refreshing experience for everybody involved.

Luxury in the lap of nature

Quite naturally, a golf course cannot be accommodated within a small, low-key resort in any part of the country. Not only does it require adequate space, but has been associated with luxury for a while now. For instance, in India, the Prestige Group has come up with Prestige Golfshire, which boasts of being “Bangalore’s most premium golf resort”. Imagine a secret space with 275 acres of lush greenery, bordered by an expansive lake at the foothills of an ancient hill fortress, and neatly tucked away from the humdrum of the outside world. As dreamy as it may sound, this is exactly the sort of setting that it enjoys, ensuring that luxury is delivered to you while you sit cradled in the lap of nature.

In this setting measuring roughly 7,000 yards, the Club offers an 18-hole championship golf course as well as a premier golf driving range for those who want to practice the game, while still enjoying quality time with their companions.

Tired of golfing? Hit the spa or take a dip!

For the times when the golf course leaves you exhausted, or when you manage to take a long walk at one of the courses, chances are that you'd need more than just a hot shower. Golf resorts do well in treating their inhabitants to more than just the good game of golf. Similar to holiday homes, golf resorts are equipped with other amenities such as spa and a swimming pool. Prestige Golfshire, however, takes it up a notch, with villa amenities such as mini fridge, Wi-Fi, open lawn area, coffee maker and several such facilities to help you relax after a rewarding session on the course. For those who do not play golf, it offers other activities as well, such as a gymnasium, a squash court, a card room, recreational area, kids play area and a cards room.
